MESSAGE FROM JOE ZENK

Dear Parents,

There is some wonderful news to share! Continuing a decade-plus long streak, Divine Savior School has advanced writers to the state level competition. Our sixth, seventh, and eighth grade students participated in the 2021 Literacy Contest sponsored by the Zeta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma. We had several winners advance from the Manitowoc County level of the competition to the statewide contest.

The sixth grade had a winning entry from Kaylee Voland and her book Spies. Due to the high quality of the stories, the selection committee chose three winners at the seventh-grade level: Sam Keuler for The Crash, Jasmine Bink for The Last Puppy, and Grace Hunsader for Winning the War.

With the pandemic shutting the school last Spring, eighth-grader Jenna Grundl was not able to complete and submit her book last school year. It was entered this year in the ninth-grade level of the competition and her book The Peacock and the Toucan also advanced to the state level of the competition. Jenna is a freshman this year at Kiel High School.

Congratulations to all of our winners and to Mrs. Jelinek for her work with these students to develop and enhance their literacy skills.

The students will be recording the Easter concert on Tuesday. Please have your child wear his/her black polos and either black or khaki pants. We will be sending you the video link by mid-week.

Registration is open for summer camp at Camp Tekakwitha. If you are looking for an exceptional Catholic summer experience spent soaking up God's great creation through outdoor adventure and community, Camp Tek is just the thing. Feel welcome to email camptekakwitha@gbdioc.org or visit camptekakwitha.org for questions and further information.

Students were given a post card this past week to bring home.

The students have done a nice job of collecting coins each week for the parish almsgiving project for residents of nursing homes and assisted living facilities in Kiel and New Holstein. Next Tuesday is the final collection day for the school.

Have a great week!
Together in Christ,
Kerry Sievert
