Hello everyone!

I hope the summer has been great for all of you! I cannot believe that Orientation is next week. So I have a few reminders and some information for each of you.

Reminder: the supply list and the school calendar are on the Divine Savior website. If for some reason you cannot find them, let me know.

Orientation Day is Thursday, August 26, 2:00-6:00. We are going to the classrooms first. Students can meet their teachers and put their supplies in the classroom or lockers. When done with that, families can head down to the gym for pictures. Smile!! An email was sent with the photo information a while back. There will be a few tables set up with some other information.

We will be requiring DS polos on Tuesdays for Mass this year. If you need a polo the order form is online. We will also have a table with extra polos. If your child outgrew his/her polo, you could bring it to the table and see if you can find one in the bigger size.

Speaking of Mass, we are following the dress code except for shorts. Students need to wear nice pants with their polo. We are allowing shorts (during the allowed time period) as long as they are dressy shorts. No sport shorts/pants or jeans are acceptable for Mass. We are trying to teach students respect for being in Jesus's house by dressing nicely. Of course, a nice skirt is allowed for the girls.

As you know, due to shortage in workers, the daycare closed. Megan Wolf is opening her own smaller daycare on our site. She is willing to take our students for after care. If you need care after school, please contact her. Her number is (920) 286-2738.

I think that about covers it. If you have any questions at all, please do not hesitate to call us.

Enjoy the rest of summer!

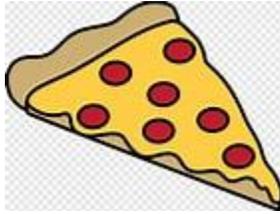

See you next Thursday!

God bless all of you!
